

2006 CHANGES TO OFFICIAL BASEBALL RULES

1. Formatting of Casebook Comments

An introductory phrase now precedes the beginning of each Casebook Comment. The phrase simply identifies which Rule the Casebook Comment amplifies. For example,

"If the umpire observes any violation of these rules, he ..."

is now changed to

"Rule 1.16 Comment: If the umpire observes any violation of these rules, he ..."

This convention is employed throughout the entire rule book.

2. Rules 1.15(a) and 1.15(c) [pitchers' gloves]

Under Rule 1.15(a) pitchers are now allowed to wear multi-colored gloves as long as the glove is not, in the judgment of the umpire, distracting. This rule is now consistent with current practice at the professional level. Rule 1.15(c) provides remedy for violations.

Old Rule	New Rule
1.15 (a) The pitcher's glove shall be uniform in color, including all stitching, lacing and webbing. The pitcher's glove may not be white or gray. (b) No pitcher shall attach to his glove any foreign material of a color different from the glove.	1.15 (a) The pitcher's glove may not be white, gray, nor, in the judgment of an umpire, distracting in any manner. (b) No pitcher shall attach to his glove any foreign material of a color different from the glove. (c) The umpire-in-chief shall cause a glove that violates Rules 1.15(a) or 1.15 (b) to be removed from the game, either on his own initiative, at the recommendation of another umpire or upon complaint of the opposing manager with which the umpire-in-chief agrees.

3. Definition of League President (Rule 2.00)

The definition of League President has been modified slightly. New Casebook Comment has been added to clarify duties of the League President at the Major League level.

Old Rule	New Rule
THE LEAGUE PRESIDENT shall enforce the official rules, resolve any disputes involving the rules, and determine any protested games. The league president may fine or suspend any player, coach, manager or umpire for violation of these rules, at his discretion.	THE LEAGUE PRESIDENT is the league official charged with enforcing these Rules, fining or suspending any player, manager, coach or umpire for violation of these Rules, resolving any disputes involving these Rules or determining any protested games. Rule 2.00 (League President) Comment: With respect to the Major Leagues, the functions of the League President pursuant to these Rules shall be carried out by the designees of the Commissioner of Baseball. The Commissioner may designate different officials to carry out different functions of a League President pursuant to these Rules.

4. Gender-Neutral Reference

A short statement has been inserted at the end of Rule 2.00 to indicate that male pronouns in the Official Baseball Rules are to be deemed female as the case may be.

Old Rule	New Rule
Not applicable	Any reference in these Official Baseball Rules to "he," "him" or "his" shall be deemed to be a reference to "she," "her" or "hers," as the case may be, when the person is female.

5. Rule 3.01 (c) [official baseballs and removing gloss]

This change removes archaic references regarding official baseballs and means of removing gloss. Rule is now consistent with current practice at the professional level.

Old Rule	New Rule
3.01 Before the game begins the umpire shall (a) Require strict observance of all rules governing implements of play and equipment of players; (b) Be sure that all playing lines (heavy lines on Diagrams No. 1 and No. 2) are marked with lime, chalk or other white material easily distinguishable from the ground or grass;	3.01 Before the game begins the umpire shall (a) Require strict observance of all rules governing implements of play and equipment of players; (b) Be sure that all playing lines (heavy lines on Diagrams No.1 and No.2) are marked with lime, chalk or other white material easily distinguishable from the ground or grass;

(c) Receive from the home club a supply of regulation baseballs, the number and make to be certified to the home club by the league president. Each ball shall be enclosed in a sealed package bearing the signature of the league president, and the seal shall not be broken until just prior to game time when the umpire shall open each package to inspect the ball and remove its gloss. 6. Rules 3.01 (f) and 8.02(a) Casebook Comment [rosin bags]

Rule 3.01 (f) is a new rule stipulating that the umpire is to ensure that a rosin bag is placed on the pitcher's mound prior to each game. Casebook Comment in 8.02(a) is amended to remove archaic reference of umpires carrying a rosin bag with them.

Old Rule	New Rule
Not applicable	3.01 (f) The umpire-in-chief shall ensure that an official rosin bag is placed on the ground behind the pitcher's plate prior to the start of each game.

8.02(a) Casebook Comment

Old Rule	New Rule
All umpires shall carry with them one official rosin bag. The umpire-in-chief is responsible for placing the rosin bag on the ground back of the pitcher's plate. If at any time the ball hits the rosin bag it is in play. In the case of rain or wet field, the umpire may instruct the pitcher to carry the rosin bag in his hip pocket. A pitcher may use the rosin bag for the purpose of applying rosin to his bare hand or hands. Neither the pitcher nor any other player shall dust the ball with the rosin bag; neither shall the pitcher nor any other player be permitted to apply rosin from the bag to his glove or dust any part of his uniform with the rosin bag.	Rule 8.02(a) Comment: If at any time the ball hits the rosin bag it is in play. A pitcher may use the rosin bag for the purpose of applying rosin to his bare hand or hands. Neither the pitcher nor any other player shall dust the ball with the rosin bag; neither shall the pitcher nor any other player be permitted to apply rosin from the bag to his glove or dust any part of his uniform with the rosin bag.

7. Rules 3.02 and 8.02(a) [intentionally defacing the baseball, possession of foreign substance by the pitcher, penalties for violation]

Rule 3.02 amended to provide automatic 10-game suspension for player who intentionally defaces the ball.

Penalty in Rule 8.02(a) changed to agree with penalty in Rule 3.02: automatic ejection of pitcher and 10-game suspension. Note that previous penalty for violation of 8.02(a) (2) through (6) [which was to call the pitch a ball, warn the pitcher, and have the violation announced] has been deleted.

New Casebook Comment added for Rules 8.02(a)(2) through (6) that allows umpire discretion to issue a warning to the pitcher if pitcher unintentionally violates either 8.02(a)(2) or 8.02(a)(3).

Old Rule	New Rule
3.02 No player shall intentionally discolor or damage the ball by rubbing it with soil, rosin, paraffin, licorice, sand-paper, emery-paper or other foreign substance. PENALTY: The umpire shall demand the ball and remove the offender from the game. In case the umpire cannot locate the offender, and if the pitcher delivers such discolored or damaged ball to the batter, the pitcher shall be removed from the game at once and shall be suspended automatically for ten days.	3.02 No player shall intentionally discolour or damage the ball by rubbing it with soil, rosin, paraffin, liquorice, sand-paper, emery-paper or other foreign substance. PENALTY: The umpire shall demand the ball and remove the offender from the game. ## 8. Rules 4.10 (d), 4.11 (d), and 4.12 [rules related to tie games and suspended games]

Rule 4.10 (d) amended so that a regulation game called with the score tied now becomes a suspended game.

Rules 4.11 (d) and 4.12 revised accordingly to agree with above change and Rule 4.12 reorganized and amplified for "cleaner" and clearer explanation of the rule.

NOTE: This change has no impact for National Association leagues that have previously adopted the optional suspended rules. In those leagues application of the new rule is a mute point because a regulation game called with the score tied is currently a suspended game under the optional suspended rules. That stipulation has been removed from the "optional" section of the rule and inserted in the main portion of the rule so that it now applies to all levels of professional baseball.

Old Rule	New Rule
4.10 (a) A regulation game consists of nine innings, unless extended because of a tie score, or shortened (1) because the home team needs none of its half of the ninth inning or only a fraction of it, or (2) because the umpire calls the game. In such games, any of these rules applying to the ninth inning shall apply to the seventh inning. (b) If the score is tied after nine completed innings play shall continue until (1) the visiting team has scored more total runs than the home team at the end of a completed inning, or (2) the home team scores the winning run in an uncompleted inning. (c) If a game is called, it is a regulation game: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>(1) If five innings have been completed;</li> <li>(2) If the home team has scored more runs in four or four and a fraction half-innings than the visiting team has scored in five completed half-innings;</li> <li>(3) If the home team scores one or more runs in its half of the fifth inning to tie the score.</li> </ul> (d) If each team has the same number of runs when the game ends, the umpire shall declare it a "Tie Game." (e) If a game is called before it has become a regulation game, the umpire shall declare it "No Game." (f) Rain checks will not be honored for any regulation or suspended game which has progressed to or beyond a point of play described in 4.10(c)	4.10(a) A regulation game consists of nine innings, unless extended because of a tie score, or shortened (1) because the home team needs none of its half of the ninth inning or only a fraction of it, or (2) because the umpire calls the game. ### 9. Rule 4.19 Casebook Comment [protested games]

Casebook Comment now requires that umpires are officially notified of the protest "before the next pitch, play or attempted play" as opposed to previous wording of "before the next pitch is made or a runner is retired." This change provides consistency with requirements regarding appeal plays.

10. Rule 6.02(c) [batter refuses to take position in batter's box]

Rule 6.02(c) amended so that penalty for batter refusing to take position in batter's box is now an automatic strike (pitcher no longer ordered to pitch the ball for the strike penalty to be called). Ball is dead during the penalty.

Old Rule	New Rule
6.02 (c) If the batter refuses to take his position in the batter's box during his time at bat, the umpire shall order the pitcher to pitch, and shall call "Strike" on each such pitch. If the batter does not take his proper position before three strikes have been called, the batter shall be declared out.

11. Rule 6.02(d) [experimental pace-of-game rule for National Association leagues]

Rule 6.02(d) added to the Official Baseball Rules. This experimental rule was in effect for all National Association leagues in 2005. No changes in any aspect or wording of the experimental rule from 2005. (The rule, although in effect in 2005 for all National Association leagues, did not appear in print in the 2005 book.)

Casebook Comment to Rule 6.05(a) has been added to prohibit fielders from catching a ball in the dugout. (Fielders may no longer enter the dugout to make a catch.) Fielders may still reach into the dugout to make a catch but they may no longer step into the dugout to do so. Casebook Comment to Rule 7.04(c) amended to delete reference allowing catch to be made in dugout.

16. Rules 6.09(b) and 7.08(a) [batter-runner attempting to advance after dropped third strike]

A new ruling provides that a batter-runner be declared out after a dropped third strike if he leaves the dirt circle around home plate while not on his way to try to reach first base. (The current Rule provides that a batter may still try to reach first base until he has reached the dugout or his defensive position.)

Under the new rule, when the batter-runner does not realize a third strike is not caught and starts for his dugout or position, the batter-runner is called out "once he leaves the dirt circle surrounding home plate."

This change affects the Casebook Comment in Rule 6.09(b) (Comment has been rewritten); as well as the Casebook Comment in Rule 7.08(a) (last paragraph of Comment and Approved Ruling following Comment have been deleted).

17. Rule 7.05(j) [pitched ball touched by detached equipment]

A new rule has been added (7.05(j)) that covers a pitched ball being touched by detached equipment. Previously, this situation was not covered under the Rules, although interpretations existed at both the Major and Minor League levels. The award of one base now concurs with interpretations at the professional level.

Old Rule	New Rule
Not applicable	7.05 (j) One base, if a fielder deliberately touches a pitched ball with his cap, mask or any part of his uniform detached from its proper place on his person. The ball is in play, and the award is made from the position of the runner at the time the ball was touched.

18. Rules 7.09(b) and 6.05(h) [batter hitting ball with bat second time]

Rules 7.09(b) and 6.05(h) were redundant; their wording was identical. Rule 7.09(b) has been deleted and other sections of 7.09 have been renumbered accordingly. No change to Rule 6.05(h).

19. Rules 8.01(a) and 8.01(b) [pitcher's position on the pitching rubber, delivery of ball to the batter]

Several changes to the pitching rules now allow a pitcher to have only a portion of his pivot foot, rather than the entire foot, in contact with the rubber, which is consistent with some modern pitching deliveries. Furthermore, in the windup position, a pitcher is allowed to have his free foot at either side of the rubber and to step to either side of the rubber, both of which are commonly accepted current practices. Previous editions of the Rules prohibited this.

Under the new rules,

- (a) Only a portion of the pitcher's pivot foot must be in contact with the rubber (no longer "entire pivot foot"). This applies to both windup and set positions. Under the new rule, pitchers may pitch "off the end" of the rubber, as long as any part of the pivot foot is in contact with the rubber.
- (b) In the windup position, the pitcher's free foot may be on the rubber, in front of the rubber, or to the side of the rubber.
- (c) In the windup position, the pitcher is permitted to step to the side during his delivery (previously prohibited).
